L. & N. SUNDAY EXCURSIONS CANCELLED.

Popular Sunday Trains To Be Taken Off Tomorrow and Sunday, Aug. 27—Equipment Necessary for the Movement of Troops.

Requiring the use of rolling stock for the transportation of National Guard troops to the different State encampments, the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company announces there will be no excursion run from New Orleans to Ocean Springs and return tomorrow and also on Sunday—two weeks later—August 27th.

Resident Agent John A. Green received official notice of the change in the following letter, addressed to "Ticket Agents, New Orleans to Ocean Springs, Miss., inclusive":

Owing to movements of various National Guard to State encampments, and the difficulty met by the carriers in providing necessary equipment for the same, it is found necessary to cancel the New Orleans to Gulf Coast Sunday excursion trains on Sunday, August 13th and Sunday, August 27th, to permit the excursion equipment to be utilized in transporting the troops in question.

The cancellations of the excursions on August 13th and 27th will not have any effect on the running of the excursion on Sunday, August 20, and the excursions on Sunday following August 27th.

Please promptly post this information on your bulletin boards and make all announcements possible in reference thereto, giving the information to your local papers so that they can make reading mention of it for the benefit of their readers.

Yours truly,

J. K. RIDGELY,

General Passenger Agent

Lines South of Birmingham.

Parties concerned will take notice accordingly. What effect the cancellation will have on the number of visitors to the Gulf Coast for the balance of August month remains to be seen. However, it is noteworthy that the excursion service will again be resumed at a later date.

of records as per bid on file, be and the same is hereby accepted.

Moved by Alderman Gillum, seconded by Alderman Carver, and carried, that the bid of Mr. E. S. Drake for making correct city maps and surveys as per advertisements, which bid of $1,750.00, the county paying half of said amount as agreed, be and the same is hereby accepted and the work ordered done as per previous understanding, advertisements and bids.

Moved by Alderman Buehler, seconded by Alderman Carver, and carried, that the Street Commissioner notify the property owners to cut all weeds on property and sidewalks as provided for by ordinance.

LEGAL NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that the contract for publishing the proceedings and legal notices, including the annual statement, all ordinances for the City of Bay St. Louis, for one year, from Saturday, the 2nd day of September, 1922, of the City of Bay St. Louis, will be sold to the best advantage of the city. Bids to be submitted on condition of the minutes being published in the newspaper in the first publication after the meeting of the Board and on condition the entire minutes of the Board be published in one publication and on condition that a failure to publish a paper on any date the paper is due wherein a city publication should appear, shall render the contract void. The bids shall contain a sworn statement showing a paid circulation. Sealed bids are required to be filed with the Secretary of the city at the City Hall, on Second street, in Bay St. Louis, Miss., on or before Saturday, the 2nd day of September, A. D. 1922. The city reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

By order of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen, this 5th day of August, 1922.

S. J. LADNER, Secretary.

Moved by Alderman John Buehler, seconded by Alderman Gillum, and carried, that the Street Commissioner be instructed to haul nothing but garbage from property.

Moved by Alderman Carver, seconded by Alderman Buehler, and carried, the following resolution was adopted:

Whereas the Legislature of the State of Mississippi, by Chapter 87, of the laws of 1916, authorized the City of Bay St. Louis to issue bonds in the sum of two hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for the purpose of building a sea wall to protect the banks from caving and overflow from storms and tide water, and whereas, the Board of Mayor and Aldermen, by an order on the minutes of June 4th, 1917, minute book 6, pages 111 and 112, ordered the issuance of said bonds, provided the

The Spanish Trail.

When we got a hold of the morning paper the first thing what we lapped was a item about the above title, to the viz: "The War Dept. takin' deep interest in the Span. Trail." Then she goes along to say that the fore-said Fightin' Office of Unc. Samuel had donated some $200,000.00—which is two hun. thou. for Hancock Co. Oh, Prunella, les go for a JOY! Bo, can you viz the possibility and the probability thereof? Two Hun. Thou. Iron Men from Mullet to Catfish which will be from the Bay to the lazy Pearl, along with what the County and the State drop in the missionary box, will put you in High gear all the way, then on the other side of the Pearl the Craw-fish Eaters will follow the same prescription—and we'll be ALL to the merry.

With bridges, an' an' everythin', all you gotta do is put her in high step on the gas, an' friend wife goes to spend the herewith at the bargain table.

Allright, Unc. Sam, les go!

A friend of us stepped into our private sanctum the other day an' remarked that his Dad was in a heluva fix during the Civil War. "How come that?" says wa. "Was he captured or shot up?"

"No," says he. "Worse than that; you see, Bo, he was a Confederate an' he hadta wear a Union Suit."

(Call the traffic man if you can't get around the above corner, Bill.)

Our HERO sat at his frugal meal with his frugal family, when the door give a rattle—stickin' his bosom out, the masticator of beef strode to receive the summons. "I have been sent to shoot you," said the Chief. Eng. of the Movie Plant. "Pray hold your fire, till we make the proper connection with that milk-fed an' we'll be ready for the Hero after," said he, bravely stridin' to the beans.

Another LOCAL man, on the horizon... Stand back a bit, will you, souse they can see.

The said product of our fast-comin' burg by them sad sea waves is none other than our scrappy friend Dud Carver. The T.-P. of the Crescent burg telfers to him as "Slithers" Carver, an' tells how he tried to make a Hamburger Steak out of a guy over there in the Ring on Monday of the P. M.

Some folks can't get things right in their noodle, eh, Bo? We met a guy what lives out by the mud flat last night, an' he was bullin' 'bout the fight, when this hick says: "Say, Fuller, what th' hotel they wanta call the boy 'Slithers' for?" "Well," says I, "maybe it's cause he's a tiger for a scrap, Joe."

"Well, maybe they got that kinda animal, Fuller, but this is the first time I ever heard of one; I seen all what they had in the circuses, but I don't remember no such a varmint as 'Slithers.' Reckon I'd better ask Prof. Keller; he knows all 'bout varmits."

Anyhow, Bo, I'm wantin' to tell you that no matter how vicious Joe finds this animal, it ain't gontabe half as savage as our Dud.

Dud says that they ain't no dern fool doctor gontabe hame him lose no more sleep, like they did in his first go.

Go to it, "Slithers," chop 'em up.

They ain't no use you good lookin' in James thinkin' 'bout makin' the LONG trip out Hollywood way, we got that ALL fixed up. Bay St. L. is gontabe get on their Movie Map, we hear. Yep, soon you young Friskies are gontabe get up at 4 of the A. M. in order to be at the Stude door when it opens. A well known guy sport whispers in our cauliflowerer that they trin' to start a Company and a guy what knows all the wherefores, tells us that the Bay is the SPOT where the Camera can shoot ANY scene except the north pole. He says that he can take you out in Devil, swamp, an' make the world swear that you been in Africa, Yep, Bo, an' I can take you out in the marsh an' make you swear that you'll kill me the next time I broach the subject.

But, all bunk aside, Prunella, the Bay would make a good Hollywood, eh?

Well, takin' it by an' large, I wish SOMEBODY would go to shootin'. Gosh, I shore do long for company.

Eagle-Eye says that now the new Ferry wharf is open, he reckons that he'll haveta put another traffic cop down there to regulate the NET result.

Bro. Solomon says that we can shoot all we want 'bout him, but we gotta lay off that hundred wife biz. Alright, Sol, we know how it is, we got ONE, an' we know how hot the trail CAN be made single-handed. So we ain't wishin' trouble nowhere, specially 'mong our friends.

Did you know that ONE sport has died? Yep, that sport what the CITY girl had teachin' the HICK 'bout the City ways, an' gigglin' at his breaks. The HICK is the Teacher, now; ain't we right, Bo?

—Mr. and Mrs. George A. Joubert were hosts of a most charming "house warming" party Sunday, August 6th, at their summer home in Waveland. Many friends from far and near were present. The "Happy Five" from Bay St. Louis furnished the music for the occasion. Special caterers from New Orleans served a most delicious plate luncheon and refreshing beverages. The whole affair was a success and one of the loveliest parties given this summer on the Gulf Coast.

DEATH OF SAMUEL J. GRAY.

A Native of Hancock County and Son of Capt. C. C. Gray—Passed Away at Gravesend, England.

The death of Samuel J. Gray, a native of Logtown, this county, and oldest son of Capt. C. C. Gray, is announced. He passed away at Gravesend, England, on June 26th. The announcement carried no details of his death.

The deceased has been in Europe since 1917, overseas with the United States Naval Forces. During the war he was on Admiral Sims' staff in London, but since the close of the war had been attached to the American Embassy at Paris. It was expected he was visiting at Gravesend for the summer at the time of his death; the cause of which was due to erysipels.

Sam Gray was well known in the Logtown vicinity. He was born in that locality and resided there with his parents. He was a young man of gifted ability and turned his talents to many purposes. At one time for quite a while he was resident correspondent for The Echo at that point, combined with Pearlington, when the Pearlington Herald was launched, a weekly newspaper which he managed and edited, owned by The Echo and printed in Bay St. Louis. With the closing down of the big mill at Pearlington the paper was suspended. He was quite an artist. He drew well and his cartoons carried such depth of meaning that he was soon employed on the staff of a New York paper, where he made good by his drawings and writings.

He was married in early life to Miss Russ, of Pearlington, who died a year or two after the marriage. A son was born to this union, Lloyd Gray, who, after the death of his mother, was taken to Bay St. Louis by his grandparents, where he resided until he grew into his early teens. He was killed in Coblenz, Germany, shortly after the armistice was signed, by the premature explosion of a gun.

While in Europe Sam J. Gray was married a second time.

The announcement of Mr. Gray's death will carry with it much regret. His father, Capt. C. C. Gray, so well and regularly known has the sympathy of all who knew him. Capt. Gray has sustained quite a loss in the death of his son Sam, of whom he was justly proud, and The Echo deeply sympathizes with him on the occasion of the visitation of death. That death loves a shining mark has again been illustrated.

—Miss L. Armstrong returned home Monday from a delightful trip to Louisiana, visiting friends at New Roads and Baton Rouge.

—Misses Mercedes and Judith Spornio have returned home from a delightful visit of several weeks to the Tennessee mountains.

—Mrs. Philip Bradbe and daughter, Mrs. Schwab, and children, from New Orleans, are spending part of the summer in Bay St. Louis, occupying one of the local bungalows.

—Miss Elsie Mauffray, the accomplished young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph O. Mauffray, will leave shortly for Columbus, to enter the I. L. and C., where she will take a special course.

—Misses Della Hymel, Madeline Eagan and Thelma Eagan are visiting at Hendersonville, N. C., and before returning home expect to visit Waynesville, Asheville, Lake Kanuga and other points of interest.

—At the regular meeting of the City Council the head of the street department was urged to enforce the ordinance making it compulsory for all property owners to clear their premises of weeds. This also applies to weeds on sidewalks.

—Mrs. R. R. Perkins and son, Mr. Grady Perkins, and Misses Perkins have gone on an auto trip through Florida. They are spending a while at De Funiack Springs, and from there will go to Jacksonville, San Augustine and along the East Coast.

—Miss Grace King, well known New Orleans writer and historian, is a distinguished visitor to Bay St. Louis, and is visiting at the home of Prof. and Mrs. Reginald S. Cocks at Cedar Point, on North Front street.

—Mr. and Mrs. George Muller, former residents of Bay St. Louis for many years, are here from New Orleans for an indefinite visit to relatives and friends, and spent Wednesday motoring to the different points along the Gulf Coast.

—The city street commissioner has been instructed by the City Council to see that his department haul away only garbage and not the trimmings from trees, discarded lumber and other material that is placed on the sidewalks for city wagons to take away.

—Mrs. A. P. Smith left during the week for a visit to relatives at Brookhaven, Miss., where she joined her daughter, Beatrice, who has been visiting relatives there the past several weeks. Before returning home Mrs. Smith will visit her sister, Mrs. Eaton, at Sumrall, Miss.

—It will be necessary to hold another election at Sellers for the proposed issuance of the $10,000.00 school bonds. The election held there recently carried, but due to the fact that a number of technicalities of the law were not complied with, it will be necessary to hold another election, which will be held on Monday, September 4, 1922.

—No sale of such gigantic proportions as will be put on by the Bay Mercantile Company, next week has ever been attempted in Bay St. Louis. This is a bona fide sale. Everything in the big department store will be slaughtered. No such opportunity has ever been offered our people. The reader is referred to the double page advertisement in this issue of The Echo.

—Bay St. Louis' new ferry pier was accepted by the Board of Supervisors yesterday afternoon, after a thorough inspection, and final payment warrant was issued to Contractor Boudin. It is expected the ferry will make its landings at the new location beginning about the middle of next week. Water pipes are being installed today in order to furnish the boat with water.

—The Hancock County Growers' Association was organized at the courthouse Friday evening, with Harry Glover, president and Ed Keller, secretary. An executive board was appointed, and the work of planting for the strawberry harvest will begin in earnest at once. County Agent O'Neal is quite a factor in the work. The Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company's agricultural department is co-operating fully.

—A large and appreciative audience witnessed the performance given Tuesday night at Woodmen Hall by local talent for the benefit of the Parent-Teachers' Club. The young ladies and gentlemen participating were trained by Mr. E. S. von Ehren, Mrs. R. L. Breath, president of the club, was assisted by Mrs. R. N. Stephens and others, whose indefatigable efforts were crowned with success. The play "The Old Maid's Club" was cleverly performed. The situations were irresistibly funny and provoked much laughter. It is hoped the same cast will present another play at an early date.
